NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK 27 SATURDAY

On this day in 1967, Australia voted to change the Constitution so Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples would be counted as part of the census.

NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK

28 SUNDAY

WHAT IS SORRY DAY AND WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

National Sorry Day is a day to acknowledge the mistreatment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who were forcibly removed from their families and communities. It was first held on 26 May 1998, one year after the Bringing Them Home report was tabled in Parliament. The Bringing Them Home report is a result of a Government Inquiry into the past policies which caused children to be removed from their families and communities in the 20th century.

WHAT IS MABO DAY AND WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

Mabo Day honours the legacy of Mer Island man Eddie Koiki Mabo and his successful efforts to overturn the legal concept of terra nullius, or 'land belonging to no-one'. The Mabo case ran for over ten years, and following the Mabo decision on June 3 1993, Australia's Federal Parliament passed the Native Title Act which established a legal framework for native title claims throughout Australia by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
